MESSAGE: NETBALL NEW ZEALAND

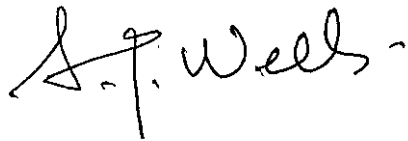

Netball audiences are in for a feast of wonderful Netball in October with the New World Netball Series for the Constellation Cup against the Australian Diamonds and the England tour for the Taini Jamison Trophy. The outstanding athleticism, skill and never-say-die attitude displayed by these teams ensures we are in for a treat.

Silver Ferns matches against Australia will be held in Invercargill and Auckland while England will play in Rotorua and Palmerston North.

Netball New Zealand wishes to thank our elite sponsor New World for their unwavering support of Netball at all levels over many years. Thanks also to broadcast partner SKY Sport for their excellent coverage of the New World Netball Series and The Radio Network who broadcast all Silver Ferns test matches live on Radio Sport.

In New Zealand we are fortunate to enjoy unprecedented media coverage of Netball, and we are grateful to the many dedicated sports journalists, photographers and social media personnel who cover our sport like nowhere else in the world.

We hope you enjoy the spectacle as these teams take to the court in the contest for the Constellation Cup and Taini Jamison Trophy.

Sheryl, Lady Wells CNZM
President, Netball New Zealand

MESSAGE: NEW WORLD

At New World, we would do almost anything for Netball.

It is with great enthusiasm that we will be backing the Silver Ferns as they challenge the Australian Diamonds for the Constellation Cup and England for the Taini Jamison Trophy in October.

New World is also proud to support Netball at a grassroots level around the country – the sport doesn't run itself, so we are delighted to be continuing our partnership with Netball New Zealand to celebrate the success of our most dedicated Netball volunteers, with the National New World Volunteer Awards.

From Junior Netball matches around the country to Silver Ferns test matches, every day is a New World, and we are 100 percent committed to supporting New Zealand's Netball community.

The Team at New World
Proud supporters of the Silver Ferns

JODI BROWN

Positions: GA, GS

Height: 1.85m

DOB: 6 May 1981

Test Caps: 42

Silver Ferns Squad: 2002–07, 2012–14

Test Debut: 12 July 2003 v Niue, in Jamaica

In the Silver Ferns squad for more than a decade, Jodi Brown is one of the senior members of the team, renowned for her consistently high work-rate in the shooting circle.

The girl from Whanganui gained 28 test caps for New Zealand before stepping out of international Netball in 2007 to start a family. Now a mother of two, Brown made a remarkable comeback to the Silver Ferns after a five-year absence.

Her reselection came after a strong performance for the Southern Steel in the 2012 ANZ Championship, playing her way back into the national team in 2012 for the Constellation Cup and Quad Series.

Jodi will play for the Central Pulse in the 2015 ANZ Championship.

KAYLA CULLEN

Positions: WD, GD, C

Height: 1.85m

DOB: 13 February 1992

Test Caps: 12

Silver Ferns Squad: 2011–2014

Test Debut: October 3, 2011 v England
in Auckland

Kayla Cullen has endured a long recovery from a major knee injury, working hard on her fitness to earn her way back into the Silver Ferns Squad for the 2014/2015 season. Cullen has taken the traditional route on her way to the Silver Ferns, progressing through the NZ Secondary School ranks and the NZU21 Squad.

Hints of her undoubted talent were highlighted when Kayla was named part of the New Zealand team which successfully defended the 2010 and 2011 World FastNet title without their Silver Ferns.

Cullen played an outstanding season by becoming a first choice starter and scooping the 2011 ANZ Championship Best Young Player award.

Cullen is a versatile player, playing in a myriad of positions for the Northern Mystics, including centre and goal defence.

LEANA DE BRUIN

Positions: GD, GK

Height: 1.90m

DOB: 9 July 1977

Test Caps: 81 NZ; 34 South Africa

Silver Ferns Squad: 2002–08, 2010–14

Test Debut: 26 February 2003 v England, in England

An energetic and rangy defender, Leana de Bruin began her international Netball career in South Africa where she earned 34 test caps for her country of birth.

A move to New Zealand followed in 2000, along with selection in the Silver Ferns, earning herself a regular starting spot in the defensive end next to captain Casey Kopua. With World Championship and Commonwealth Games titles to her name, de Bruin has carved her name in the annals of New Zealand's Netballing history as one of the great defenders to take the court for the Ferns.

De Bruin was in the WBOP Magic team which won the ANZ Championship title in 2012. She continues to make an impact as a respected defender and is playing arguably some of the best Netball of her career for both the Magic and the Silver Ferns.

TEMALISI FAKAHOKOTAU

Positions: GD, WD, GK

Height: 1.82m

DOB: 9 September 1994

Test Caps: 0

Exciting young defender Temalisi Fakahokotau enjoyed an impressive 2014 ANZ Championship season with the Northern Mystics, featuring in 12 matches against world class opposition while still a teenager.

Of Tongan descent, Temalisi is one of nine siblings and has taken giant strides forward over the past few years since being spotted by Emerging Talent Selectors in 2012. She was named in both Trans-Tasman, and New Zealand Secondary Schools squads, followed by the Emerging Talent Accelerant Group Selection (now the National Player Development Squad), and Netball Northern Zone Under 23's.

SHANNON FRANCOIS

Positions: C, WA
Height: 1.78m
DOB: 12 October 1990
Test Caps: 11
Silver Ferns Squad: 2013–2014
Test Debut: 4 October 2013 v Australia in Adelaide

2013 was a break-through year for mid-courter Shannon Francois, called into the Silver Ferns squad as cover and quickly made her mark with her speed to the circle edge matching the best in the world. She was named in the Silver Ferns team for the Australian leg of the 2013 Constellation Cup fixtures and earned her first cap against the Australian Diamonds in the third test match in Adelaide.

Francois was selected to tour the UK as part of a 12-strong Silver Ferns team in January 2014 and her selection into the Silver Ferns team for the Commonwealth Games was reward for her hard work.

In the ANZ Championship, Francois has found her niche with the Southern Steel and has had another stellar year in the midcourt in 2014, re-signing for the 2015 season.

KATRINA GRANT

Positions: GK, GD, WD
Height: 1.86m
DOB: 6 May 1987
Test Caps: 55
Silver Ferns Squad: 2008-2014
Test Debut: 20 September 2008 v Australia, in Auckland

National Netball selectors spotted Katrina Grant's potential early in the peace. After winning the 2005 World Youth Championships with the NZU21 team, Grant progressed to NZA and was added to the Silver Ferns squad in March 2008 following good performances as a training camp invitee.

The athletic, rangy defender is known for her fearless contribution in the defensive circle and a competitive attitude.

Her antics as part of the FAST5 Ferns in the FAST5 Netball World Series is legendary and she is known to be the mastermind behind any creative attempts by the Ferns at pre-game entertainment.

Katrina is the captain of the Central Pulse in the ANZ Championship.

ELLEN HALPENNY

Positions: GS, GA
Height: 1.85m
DOB: 25 July 1990
Test Caps: 4
Silver Ferns Squad 2014
Test Debut: 26 July 2014 v Scotland in Glasgow

Ellen Halpenny enjoyed a stellar season for the Kia Waikato Bay of Plenty Magic in the ANZ Championship under coach Julie Fitzgerald. Paired with former Tactix teammate Jo Harten in the shooting circle, Halpenny impressed national selectors with her tenacious play, gritty determination and an improved work rate.

A versatile attacking player who can interchange between goal attack and goal shooter, Halpenny also picks up more than her share of centre pass receives.

She was the only new cap in the NZ team of 12 to compete at the Glasgow 2014 Commonwealth Games winning silver, and was thrust into the starting line-up following injuries to Cathrine Latu and Maria Tutaia, showing a cool head under immense pressure.

JOLINE HENRY

Positions: WD, C
Height: 1.83m
DOB: 29 September 1982
Test Caps: 85
Silver Ferns Squad: 2003-2014
Test Debut: 5 July 2004 v Australia in Hamilton

Tenacious mid-courter Joline Henry has been an integral member of the Silver Ferns for a decade, making her on-court debut in 2004 against Australia.

Henry was in the Silver Ferns side which won the inaugural World Netball Series in 2009 and the 2010 Commonwealth Games gold medal in Delhi.

With the start of the ANZ Championship in 2008, Henry signed with the WBOP Magic, moving to the Auckland-based Northern Mystics for the 2009-2011 seasons.

Henry now plays for the Central Pulse team where she anchors the midcourt defence. She has an uncanny ability to read the game and is always looking to offload into the shooting circle from the midcourt.

Henry is the first choice wing defence for New Zealand Netball team and was an integral member of the Ferns team at the 2014 Glasgow Commonwealth Games.

PHOENIX KARAKA

Positions: GK, GD

Height: 1.86m

DOB: 6 November 1993

Test Caps: 1

Silver Ferns Squad: 2014

Test Debut: 20 January 2014 v England
in London

Defender Phoenix Karaka made her Silver Ferns debut with a cameo appearance in the final minute of the test match between New Zealand and England in January 2014. Injected into the travelling squad for the tour of the United Kingdom, the experience gave Karaka invaluable insight into the inner workings of the Silver Ferns, drawing on the coaching expertise of Waimarama Taumaunu as well as being welcomed into the fold by the Silver Ferns team members.

She was given the opportunity take the court in the three exhibition matches against the Scottish Thistles and England A. Karaka's reselection comes on the back of an impressive ANZ Championship season for the Southern Steel.

CASEY KOPUA (C) (ONZM)

Positions: GD, GK

Height: 1.88m

DOB: 19 June 1985

Test Caps: 84

Silver Ferns Squad: 2004–2014

Test Debut: 14 November 2005 v
Barbados, in Jamaica

The Silver Ferns have a proud history of producing outstanding defenders, none more so than Casey Kopua.

The 29 year old has been leading the Silver Ferns since July 2009, her first victory as captain against the Australian Diamonds in the first match of the 2009 Holden Netball Test Series, on 6 September at Acer Arena, Sydney.

Playing in either the goal keep or goal defence position on court, Kopua is well known for her aerial intercepts and dogged determination. Her dedication to Netball was recognised in 2011, named in the Queen's Birthday Honours List as an Officer for the New Zealand Order of Merit for services to Netball.

Kopua has spent the past seven ANZ Championship seasons playing for the Waikato Bay of Plenty Magic side and will lead the team again in 2015.

LAURA LANGMAN (VC)

Positions: C, WA

Height: 1.73m

DOB: 16 April 1986

Test Caps: 107

Silver Ferns Squad: 2004–2014

Test Debut: 12 March 2005 v England
in Auckland

Dynamic mid-courter Laura Langman is one of the finest ball carriers in the game, boasting an incredible record of taking to the court for every Silver Ferns match since her selection in 2005. Langman is only the third player to have reached the 100 game milestone for New Zealand which she did in January, 2014.

Langman is the vice-captain of the Silver Ferns and after six years of ANZ Championship Netball playing for the Waikato Bay of Plenty Magic, played for the Northern Mystics in the 2014 season and has signed again for the Mystics in 2015.

As a key team member and vice-captain of the Silver Ferns, Langman is the Ferns' linchpin in the midcourt with her skilful play on both attack and defence. She will become the second most capped Silver Fern if she plays more than three matches in the upcoming New World Netball Series against Australia and England, surpassing Lesley Rumball (on 110 test caps), Irene van Dyk (145).

CATHRINE LATU

Positions: GS, GA

Height: 1.89m

DOB: 25 October 1986

Test Caps: 20 (NZ), 30 (Samoa)

Silver Ferns Squad: 2011–2014

Test Debut: 3 October 2011 v England
in Auckland

Cathrine Latu has continued to add the polish to her abundant repertoire of skills in the shooting circle.

After electing to play for Samoa at the 2007 Netball World Championships in Auckland, Latu then needed to complete a four-year stand-down to become eligible to play for the Silver Ferns.

Inclusion in the Silver Ferns squad became a formality in September 2011, making her debut against England in October the same year. Latu is consistently in the top three in the ANZ Championship for shooting accuracy and is playing the best Netball of her career to date. She will once again play for the Northern Mystics in the 2015 ANZ Championship.

CAMILLA LEES

Positions: WA, C

Height: 1.77m

DOB: 27 March 1989

Test Caps: 11

Silver Ferns Squad: 2009–2013

Test Debut: 15 January 2011 v England
in Manchester

Silver Ferns mid-courter Camilla (Millie) Lees is a dynamic and athletic mid-courter consistently putting in strong performances in the wing attack position.

Lees was selected for the Silver Ferns tour to England for the inaugural 2009 World Netball Series, and tests against England and Jamaica in October 2009. A talented athlete, Lees has a wide skill-set and is particularly effective on defence.

Her on-court debut for the Silver Ferns was in Manchester, England at the start of 2011. She continues to impress selectors with her tenacious ability to find space and feed her shooters with accuracy.

Lees re-joins the Silver Ferns squad after missing the 2013 international season with injury and will play the 2015 ANZ Championship season with the Northern Mystics.

LIANA LEOTA

Positions: C, WA

Height: 1.68m

DOB: 31 October 1984

Test Caps: 37

Silver Ferns Squad: 2008-11, 2014

Test Debut: 26 October 2008 v Australia in Melbourne

Liana Leota made headlines this year, making a comeback to elite Netball in the ANZ Championship for the Haier Pulse just five weeks after the birth of her third child.

A determined and competitive midcourter, Leota has the ability to change the pace of a game. Her sense of timing with circle edge feeds into the shooters is instinctive and her natural ability has seen her reselected into the Silver Ferns midcourt for the first time since 2011.

She was a key team member of the gold medal winning Commonwealth Games side in Delhi in 2010, her experience in the cauldron of high pressure Netball is invaluable to the Ferns set up.

BAILEY MES

Positions: GS, GA, WA

Height: 1.87m

DOB: 27 May 1989

Test Caps: 3

Silver Ferns Squad: 2012-2014

Test Debut: 14 October 2012 v South Africa in Adelaide

Bailey Mes is one of the Silver Ferns' rising stars after impressing selectors at national trials in August, 2012. Mes has the skills to play in the midcourt and the shooting circle, earning a regular starting spot at the end of the Northern Mystics season in 2013.

A serious knee injury dashed her chances of selection for the Silver Ferns squad later that year but with impressive elevation combined with her 1.87m height, she promises to be a dynamic addition to the Ferns' squad in 2014/2015.

Bailey will play her ANZ Championship Netball next season for the Mainland Tactix following five years at the Northern Mystics.

GRACE RASMUSSEN

Positions: WA, GA

Height: 1.77m

DOB: 18 March 1988

Test Caps: 8

Silver Ferns Squad: 2009–2013

Test Debut: 7 August 2010 v Samoa in Wellington

Valuable utility attacker Grace Rasmussen cut her teeth in international Netball at the 2005 World Youth Netball Championships as part of the winning NZU21 side.

In 2009, Rasmussen travelled to England as a training partner for the Silver Ferns, and was included in the Ferns squad soon after.

Of Samoan origin, it was a special moment for Grace to make her Silver Ferns' debut against Samoa in Porirua in 2010. She had frequent court time in pool play at the 2010 Commonwealth Games in Delhi on the path to New Zealand's victory.

Grace was an integral part of the Northern Mystics side in the ANZ Championship for six years until signing for the Waikato Bay of Plenty Magic for the 2014 season a move which paid dividends, with the team reaching the ANZ Championship Finals Series for the seventh consecutive year.

COURTNEY TAIRI

Positions: C, WA

Height: 1.80m

DOB: 15 July 1988

Test Caps: 3

Silver Ferns Squad: 2013–2014

Test Debut: 15 September 2013 v Australia in Invercargill

Midcourter Courtney Tairi got her first taste of elite Netball selected as a temporary replacement player in the NSW Swifts side in the ANZ Championship in 2009.

One year later, Tairi was named in the team of 12 for the Swifts, playing either wing attack or centre positions.

In 2011, Tairi cemented her place in the starting line-up for Swifts, later signing with New Zealand franchise Southern Steel in 2012 where she played for two seasons.

A solid 2014 ANZ Championship season for the WBOP Magic and a strong Silver Ferns trial has seen Tairi reselected in the squad for the 2014/2015 season. On the international Netball scene, Tairi played for Australia at U21 level in 2009.

AMELIARANNE WELLS

Positions: GS, GA

Height: 1.86m

DOB: 11 January 1989

Test Caps: 0

Ameliaranne Wells made herself available for the Silver Ferns this year and was rewarded with a spot in the squad after trials in September. Of Nga Puhi heritage the talented and versatile shooter has made the move across the Tasman to bolster New Zealand's shooting stocks and joins the Ferns with an excellent track record, including an ANZ Championship crown which she won with the Queensland Firebirds in 2011.

Ameliaranne will play for the Central Pulse in the 2015 ANZ Championship.

WAIMARAMA TAUMAUNU

(MBE)

COACH

Waimarama Taumaunu is a former Silver Ferns captain and almost needs no introduction with her Netball pedigree as one of the world's top defenders, representing the Ferns for more than a decade from 1981-1991, including the 1987 World Championship winning team.

Since retiring from playing Netball, Taumaunu has had stints as the National Performance Director for All England Netball (1998-2003), assistant coach for England (2003 World Championships), NZA team coach and a previous term as Silver Ferns assistant coach (1997-1998 and more recently 2008-2012 assisting Ruth Aitken).

One career highlight was pairing with Aitken to lead the national side to Commonwealth Games glory in 2010, defeating Australia in double extra time. In the 1992 New Year Honours, Taumaunu was made a Member of the Order of the British Empire for services to Netball and was inducted into the New Zealand Sports Hall of Fame in 1996.

VICKI WILSON

(OAM)

ASSISTANT COACH

This former Australian Netball captain is one of the finest shooters ever to play the game. Vicki Wilson joined the Silver Ferns management team in August, 2013 as assistant coach, working closely with coach Waimarama Taumaunu.

Vicki started her international playing career in 1985, selected into the Australian Netball team, a spot she held for fifteen years. In that time, she earned 104 Test Caps, three World Championship gold medals and one Commonwealth Games gold medal. She was awarded the Order of Australia medal in 1992.

Since retiring in 1999, Vicki has forged a successful high performance coaching career, and is highly sought after all around Australasia delivering, coordinating and managing high performance programmes. Vicki's ability to deliver professional leadership which sets vision combined with individual and team goals sets her apart.

ESTHER MOLLOY

SILVER FERNS OPERATIONS MANAGER

Silver Ferns Operations Manager, Esther Molloy, is responsible for organising and managing the entire Silver Ferns squad. A skilled multi-tasker and avid Netball enthusiast, Esther is now into her sixth year with the Ferns, making sure they are a tight-knit unit both on and off the court.

She works closely with coaches Waimarama Taumaunu and Vicki Wilson to ensure everything from a logistical and operational standpoint is organised to the highest degree. A key part of her role is knowing where the local supermarket and laundromat is on any given day.

The attention to detail required for this role makes Esther the perfect fit and she is still as passionate about the squad and their results as the day she started with Netball New Zealand.

She comes from a sporting background and shares her love of Netball with a passion for sailing.

SHARON KEARNEY

LEAD PHYSIOTHERAPIST

Sharon Kearney is so much more than the Silver Ferns Lead Physiotherapist. The mother of three also runs her own Physiotherapy business in Christchurch, is the Lead Provider for High Performance Sport NZ and has been part of the Netball New Zealand family for three decades.

Sharon has led the charge for Netball in New Zealand to use the latest technology and sports science available to ensure optimum performances on the court. Trusted by the very best in the business, Sharon is a key member of the Silver Ferns Management team where she was the physiotherapist from 1992-1995 and reappointed to the role in 2002.

DR BOBBY WILLCOX

PERFORMANCE ANALYST

Dr Bobby Willcox has worked with the Silver Ferns for a decade as performance analyst and after many years of mathematical and statistical study, now boasts a doctorate in Statistics. A highly valued member of the Silver Ferns Management team, Bobby plays a vital role in the Silver Ferns where one pass, one shot and one movement can make all the difference.

The Prime Minister's Scholarship recipient closely follows all ten teams through the ANZ Championship season at the start of each year, looking at the tactics and strategies used while indulging in her passion for research projects when the Silver Ferns are not in camp or on tour.

KERRY MANDERS

HEAD OF COMMUNICATIONS & MARKETING

Rarely seen without her phone in hand, Kerry has toured the world with the Ferns team at World Championships and Commonwealth Games', organising media access to the Ferns - one of world Netball's most popular teams.

Kerry has been instrumental within NNZ, setting up the hugely popular Netball New Zealand website and other online social media channels and has taken ownership of the five year plan to record and document New Zealand's Netballing legacy.

CAITLIN BASSETT

Positions: GS
Height: 1.93m
DOB: 23 May 1988
Test Caps: 40
Australian Team: 2008, 2010–14

The West Australian is now regarded as one of the world's premier goal shooters, highlighted by her performance spearheading Australia to victory at the 2014 Commonwealth Games in Glasgow. Bassett shot 49 goals at 92 per cent accuracy in the final and is sure to cause headaches for opposition defences for many years to come.

Bassett made her Test debut in 2008 but became a household name at the 2011 World Championships in Singapore where she shot the match-winning goal with one second left on the clock in extra time. She finished that tournament with 151 goals at an incredible 97 per cent accuracy. She has consistently been one of the top scorers in the ANZ Championship.

REBECCA BULLEY

Positions: GK, GD
Height: 1.86m
DOB: 18 August 1982
Test Caps: 37
Australian Team: 2005, 2008–14

Known for her persistent defending skills and tight marking in the circle, Bulley's talent and determination saw her gain selection into the Diamonds team for the Commonwealth Games in Delhi.

Bulley was a replacement player during the 2011 Holden Netball Test Series, making the most of her opportunities to keep herself very much on the radar.

In 2012 Bulley moved to the Adelaide Thunderbirds and won three of the club's four awards in her debut year, including the prestigious Player of the Year. She backed up this year to play a key role in the Thunderbirds triumphant ANZ Championship title-winning side. In 2013 she played in the team against New Zealand and Malawi.

TEGAN CALDWELL

Positions: GA, GS
Height: 1.75m
DOB: 3 September 1988
Test Caps: 5
Australian Team: 2014

After a couple of years on the fringe of the Diamonds, Caldwell finally made her international debut at this year's Commonwealth Games in Glasgow.

Her first test cap came against Wales and she converted her first shot at goal in the green and gold, finishing the match with 12 goals. The 26-year-old's selection was just reward for her stunning 2014 ANZ Championship campaign for the Melbourne Vixens where she shot a career-high 347 goals and was named Player of the Match in their Grand Final triumph.

Capable of playing at either goal attack or shooter, her fitness and accuracy under the ring are superb. Speed, tenacity and defensive pressure are all major features of her game. She also represented the Australian FAST5 Flyers in 2013.

JULIE CORLETTO

Positions: GD, GK, WD
Height: 1.84m
DOB: 31 October 1986
Test Caps: 41
Australian Team: 2008-09, 2011-12, 2014

It was a triumphant return to international duties for the 2009 Liz Ellis Diamond winner at this year's Commonwealth Games after a series of knee and foot injuries sidelined her from the Australian line-up for almost two years.

Her last Test prior to Glasgow was in September 2012. The 27-year-old's performances during the Games highlighted why she's such an important part of Australia's defensive end at either goal defence or wing defence.

Having spent the past two ANZ Championship seasons based in based in Auckland with the Northern Mystics, Corletto has moved back to Australia and will line-up with the NSW Swifts in 2015.

LAURA GEITZ (C)

Positions: GK, GD
Height: 1.86m
DOB: 4 November 1987
Test Caps: 49
Australian Team: 2008-2014

Laura Geitz is widely respected by her peers as one of the most inspirational players and leaders in the ANZ Championship and is transforming those qualities into the international arena.

Before this year's Constellation Cup series, Geitz had a remarkable 93 per cent strike rate as Australian captain and led the Diamonds to 13 consecutive victories. She was also scheduled to become the 24th Australian player to reach the 50-Test milestone in the opening match of the Constellation Cup at Invercargill.

Geitz made her test debut in 2008 and in 2011 led the Queensland Firebirds to the ANZ Championship title and also won the coveted Liz Ellis Diamond.

KIMBERLEE GREEN

Positions: WA, C
Height: 1.76m
DOB: 5 March 1986
Test Caps: 62
Australian Team: 2008-2014

In her first year as sole captain of the NSW Swifts, Kimberlee Green was joint winner of the ANZ Championship Most Valuable Player Award and also named in the ANZ Championship All-Star Team for the first time.

The 28-year-old was named vice-captain for last year's Test Series against Malawi and, is a physically strong and athletic midcourter who won't back off in any pressure situation. She is a dynamic player renowned for her explosive power, quick hands and her fierce competitive nature. Green wears her heart on her sleeve and plays the game with great intensity and passion.

RENAE HALLINAN

Positions: WD, C
Height: 1.78m
DOB: 18 July 1986
Test Caps: 51
Australian Team: 2009-10; 2012-14

One of the influential playmakers in the Australian Diamonds line-up, Hallinan has enjoyed outstanding success over the past 12 months. She was a key part of the Adelaide Thunderbirds 2013 ANZ Championship triumph and was rewarded for a fantastic series against New Zealand and Malawi by being named winner of the Liz Ellis Diamond.

Hallinan took over the Thunderbirds captaincy in 2014 following the retirement of Natalie von Bertouch and made amends for missing Australia's 2011 World Championship triumph by helping lead the team to gold at this year's Commonwealth Games. She reached the 50-Test milestone in Australia's semi-final victory against Jamaica.

SHARNI LAYTON

Positions: GK, GD, WD
Height: 1.88m
DOB: 1 June 1988
Test Caps: 18
Australian Team: 2011, 2013-14

The hard-working defender returned to the green and gold in 2013 after missing the 2012 international series because of injury thanks to a dominating ANZ Championship season with the Adelaide Thunderbirds.

A former AIS scholarship holder and vice-captain of the 2009 World Youth Netball Championship winning side, Layton entered the ANZ Championship with a bang in 2010. She cemented her spot in the Thunderbirds starting seven, winning the league's Best Young Player award and her first premiership.

Her versatility to cover all three defensive positions and her never say die attitude saw her win a place on Australia's victorious 2011 World Championship team.

CLARE McMENIMAN

Positions: GD, WD
Height: 185cm
DOB: 11 July 1985
Test Caps: 0
Australian Team: 2014

McMeniman retired after playing in the Queensland Firebirds historic 2011 ANZ Championship Grand Final, only to be lured back by good friend and captain Laura Geitz for the 2014 season.

Her experience proved invaluable for the young Firebirds squad as they made it back-to-back Grand Final appearances. The 29-year-old played every match and was rewarded for her consistent form by being called up as a training partner and then officially added to the Diamonds squad and then team. She was also part of the Australian squad in 2011 and would love to cap off her career with a Test cap.

NATALIE MEDHURST

Positions: GA, GS
Height: 1.78m
DOB: 20 January 1984
Test Caps: 60
Australian Team: 2007-14

The move to Perth to the West Coast Fever in 2014 allowed Natalie Medhurst's goal circle combination with Caitlin Bassett grow and develop.

The 30-year-old is a clever playmaker with elusive qualities and in 2014 became the first Australian to reach the 100-game milestone in the ANZ Championship.

Her career accolades include being joint winner of the ANZ Championship MVP in 2011 and was one of the stars of Australia's triumphant World Championship campaign that same year, winning three Player of the Match awards including the unforgettable final against the Silver Ferns.

KIM RAVAILLION

Positions: C, WD, WA
Height: 1.75m
DOB: 26 July 1993
Test Caps: 13
Australian Team: 2013-14

Ravallion is an intelligent player whose game has a good mix of speed and athleticism.

She has come through Netball Australia's pathway system, winning the Most Valuable Player award at the 2012 19/U National Championships, impressed in the Australian Netball League with the AIS, earned an ANZ Championship contract with the Queensland Firebirds and was selected in the Australian FAST5 team before being named in the Diamonds team for their tour of England in January 2013, where she played in all three matches.

The New South Wales native was a member of Australia's 2013 World Youth Netball Championship team.

MADI ROBINSON

Positions: WA, C
Height: 1.68m
DOB: 5 January 1988
Test Caps: 38
Australian Team: 2009 (replacement player), 2010-14

Robinson's career reached a pinnacle in 2014, winning her first ANZ Championship title with the Melbourne Vixens and then claiming a Commonwealth Games gold medal. Both were satisfying achievements for Robinson having missed out on being part of Australia's 2011 World Championship triumph.

Robinson captained Australia to the 2009 World Youth Netball Championship and made her international debut in 2010 on the Diamonds' UK tour where she earned the Player of the Match accolade in her first Test against Scotland in Glasgow. In 2012 Robinson was rewarded for her season by winning the Australian International Player of the Year award, ANZ Championship Player of the Year award and the prestigious Liz Ellis Diamond, the highest individual honour in Australian Netball.

CAITLIN THWAITES

Positions: GS, GA

Height: 1.88m

DOB: 29 December 1986

Test Caps: 18

Australian Team: 2008, 2012–14

The Bendigo-born and raised shooter doubled her test caps during Australia's Commonwealth Games gold medal campaign in Glasgow. A formidable target in any goal circle, the 28-year-old former elite volleyball player was on the fringe of the Australian team for a number of seasons until she finally made her test debut in the 2012 Quad Series against South Africa in Wellington, where she shot 23 goals at 100 per cent accuracy.

Thwaites had a solid debut year with the NSW Swifts in her return to Australia after three seasons playing for the Central Pulse in the ANZ Championship.

LISA ALEXANDER

COACH

Lisa Alexander boasts an impressive list of coaching credentials. She guided the Melbourne Phoenix to consecutive Commonwealth Bank Trophy titles in 2002-03.

She coached the Australian Under 21 side in 2006 and was the assistant coach for the World Seven Team in 2009. Lisa was the Adelaide Thunderbirds assistant coach from 2008-2011 and was influential in the team's 2010 ANZ premiership. Lisa was the apprentice coach in 1994 and is the 14th Diamonds coach in history. She also recently guided the Diamonds to the Commonwealth Games gold medal in Glasgow.

MARGARET CALDOW

(OAM BEM)

TECHNICAL SPECIALIST COACH

Caldow, a talented goal attack, captained Australia for eight years during an international playing career that spanned 17 years, from 1962-1979, and included three World Championship triumphs.

As a coach, Caldwell mentored many Australian players at the Australian Institute of Sport, Victorian Institute of Sport and as national Assistant coach, and also coached England at the 2007 World Netball Championships.

Following a stellar playing career, Caldwell was inducted into the Sport Australia Hall of Fame and was awarded the British Empire Medal (BEM).

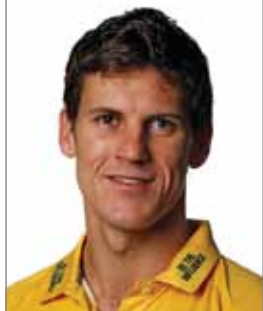

JULIE RICHARDSON

TEAM MANAGER

After making her international debut in 2013 managing the Australian Diamonds, Julie Richardson spent the past four years as Netball Australia's High Performance Operations Manager.

She played a significant role in the success of the Diamonds before stepping into the touring support staff role last year.

Julie has had a busy year so far managing the Diamonds team at the Glasgow Commonwealth Games and now for the Constellation Cup and the series against England in Australia.

AMA AGBEZE

Positions: GD, GK, WD
Height: 1.83m

Date of Birth: 12 November 1982
Hometown: Birmingham/Perth
Test Caps: 55

Winning over 50 caps, Ama is an experienced member of the England defensive unit and her versatility on court is a fantastic benefit for the side.

Having spent the last couple of seasons plying her trade in the ANZ Championship, Ama will prove invaluable in her knowledge of playing in front of Australasian crowds against players she is familiar with.

Ama has re-signed for the Central Pulse in the ANZ Championship for the 2015 season.

ROSIE ALLISON

Positions: GS
Height: 1.90m

Date of Birth: 25 January 1992
Hometown: West Sussex
Test Caps: 8

Rosie continues to impress with her performances for Team Bath in the Netball Superleague and once again shone with her fabulous composure and accuracy for the team in blue and gold.

The young shooter provides England with another option in the shooting circle and will be looking to transition her fine domestic form onto the international stage.

SARA BAYMAN

Positions: C, WD
Height: 1.80m

Date of Birth: 23 December 1984
Hometown: Manchester
Test Caps: 56

A consistent performer for club and country, Sara is a firm favourite among the fans and continues to win rave reviews from experts across the globe. Her eye for a delicate pass and ability to read the game often makes her a nightmare for opposing players to contain.

Effortless transition play coupled with an astonishing work-rate, Sara is one of the toughest mid-courtiers currently on the international stage.

EBONI BECKFORD- CHAMBERS

Positions: GK, GD
Height: 1.85m

Date of Birth: 4 February 1988
Test Caps: 53

Dominant in the defensive, Eboni has made the GD bib her own in recent tournaments. She is an imposing and authoritative figure for England and has struck up an excellent understanding alongside Geva Mentor to be a part of one of the most feared units in the world.

Eboni has been recognised for her outstanding displays in the ANZ Championship with MVP awards while at West Coast Fever and she makes the move over to the Adelaide Thunderbirds for the forthcoming season.

JADE CLARKE (c)

Positions: WA, C, WD
Height: 1.75m
Date of Birth: 17 October 1983
Hometown: Manchester
Test Caps: 105

The fact that the England captain now joins the centenary club shows just what a fantastic career the driven and imperious mid-courter has had to date.

Quiet off court but a true leader on it, Jade is one of the most intelligent players in today's game and with her incredible agility matched by her deceptive speed, she often makes the most amazing plays possible.

After two years with the Mainland Tactix in the ANZ Championship following stints with the Waikato Bay of Plenty Magic and the Northern Mystics, Jade will play the 2015 season with the NSW Swifts.

SAM COOK

Positions: GK, GD
Height:
Date of Birth: 21 February 1992
Hometown:
Test Caps: 0

Another member of the England squad to have a fantastic season with Team Bath in 2014. Sam formed a wonderful partnership with Stacey Francis and impressed with her ability to make impossible tips and interceptions.

Rarely allowing opposing shooters room to breathe let alone move, Sam is an upcoming star for her country.

KADEEN CORBIN

Positions: GA, GS
Height: 1.78m
Date of Birth: 27 November 1991
Hometown: London
Test Caps: 21

Kadeen is a real enigma in the England squad and often draws gasps from the crowd with her impressive shot making. Her movement around the circle and dominant nature allows the play to have fluidity in attack.

The younger sister of fellow squad member Sasha, she is always up for the fight on court and never shirks her duty, defenders will know they have been in a game at the final whistle following a clash with Kadeen.

SASHA CORBIN

Positions: WA, C
Height: 1.70m
Date of Birth: 23 April 1988
Hometown: London
Test Caps: 42

From potential star to fully fledged international stalwart, Sasha has cemented her place in the England squad with an array of fantastic performances. Her driving onto the circle edge, incredible agility in receiving and distributing the ball and her phenomenal stamina will be vital for England in these Spring fixtures.

RACHEL DUNN

Positions: GS

Height: 1.88m

Date of Birth: 14 November 1982

Hometown: Harrow

Test Caps: 58

Rachel is an incredibly experienced member of the squad who oozes composure in everything she does on court. The area under the post is the natural habitat for Rachel who holds her space wonderfully against defenders of all varieties, making herself an excellent target to finish off swift through court moves from her England side.

STACEY FRANCIS

Positions: GD, WD, GK

Height: 1.80m

Date of Birth: 1 January 1988

Hometown: Birmingham

Test Caps: 41

Nothing is done in half measures for the incredibly passionate Stacey Francis. Every goal conceded hurts the Team Bath defender, this steely determination making her work as hard as anyone else on court. The continuous pressure forces opposing players into mistakes as her constant presence and ability to steal the ball from any position often sees her emerge with the ball.

SERENA GUTHRIE

Positions: WD, C

Height: 1.80m

Date of Birth: 5 January 1990

Hometown: Jersey

Test Caps: 48

As the Commonwealth Games showcased, Serena is one of the toughest members of the England squad. Always willing to put her body on the line, no interception or pass is seen as impossible to reach for the ridiculously athletic and energetic mid-courter. On top of this, the popular Serena also possesses wonderful movement and a fantastic cohesion to her play.

Her displays haven't gone unnoticed as the Northern Mystics have snapped her up for the 2015 ANZ Championship season.

JO HARTEN

Positions: GS, GA

Height: 1.88m

Date of Birth: 21 March 1989

Hometown: Harlow

Test Caps: 60

Rightly regarded as one of the finest shooters in the game, Jo is firmly on her way to establishing herself as an England legend. She is a complete attacking player, as composed shooting from the edge of the circle as she is popping one in from close range.

Jo's movement and link-up play with the mid-court is to be admired and as one of the most experienced players in the team she has also taken on this mantle and her voice is often heard above all else's during the game.

HELEN HOUSBY

Positions: GA, GS

Height: 1.83m

Date of Birth: 19 January 1985

Hometown: Carlisle

Test Caps: 3

Helen wrote her name into Superleague history when she netted a last second winner for Manchester Thunder in the 2014 Grand Final. Her exceptional performances that season won her a spot in the Commonwealth Games squad where she performed admirably when called upon. She possesses nerves of steel and wisdom beyond her years on court. An incredibly exciting talent, big things are expected of Helen in the coming years.

GEVA MENTOR

Positions: GK, GD

Height: 1.88m

Date of Birth: 17 September 1984

Hometown: Bournemouth

Test Caps: 95

A world class performer every time she steps on to a court, Geva is one of few players who would be selected into any fantasy Netball squad in the current game.

Consistently achieving greatness for her club and country, she is one of the finest defenders of her generation and inspires England as the driving force in the defensive end. Her movement, agility, ability to read the game, phenomenal athleticism and dominant nature make Geva as close to the complete defender as there is.

Geva will play ANZ Championship Netball for the Melbourne Vixens in 2015.
